ALL HANDS MEETING FOR SACRAMENTO VETERANS HOSTED BY CALVET AND SACRAMENTO STATE UNIVERSITY

SACRAMENTO – The California Department of Veteran Affairs, the City of Sacramento, and Sacramento State University are joining forces to help meet the needs of California vets and provide them with needed information.

EVENT: An all-hands meeting will be held to provide veterans with topical information regarding their benefits and services, specifically for those recently returning from active duty. Among topics to be covered will be information regarding PTSD, the New GI Bill, and employment opportunities.

DATE: Wednesday, September 22, 2010

TIME: 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm

PLACE: Sacramento State University,
University Ballroom
University Union
6000 J Street,
Sacramento, CA

WHO: Representatives from CalVet, elected officials (invited), veterans, and students

BACKGROUND: This is one of several Veterans All-Hands Meetings taking place throughout California this year. These meetings are designed to provide a forum for providing current information regarding benefits and services available to veterans. Also provided will be information of great importance to veterans returning from the current conflicts in Afghanistan and Iraq. Please see attached flyer.
